A great soundtrack for the second Homeworld game. It's somewhat similar to the first, but contains more 'sweeping' orchestral elements and the middle-eastern influences are pushed up to 11 ('The Keeper' and 'Battle for Sajuuk' show this off quite well).

Unlike Homeworld 1's Remastered Soundtrack, nothing's really missing here. In fact, they've included four unreleased tracks for our listening pleasure!. For MAC Users:

In Game file Folder: right click on "HomeWorld Remastered Collection.app", select "Show Package Content" and you'll find the Soundtrack in Contents\Assets\Soundtracks

Enjoy :). Another masterpiece from composer Paul Ruskay. Even by itself this track does wonders. Worth every penny.. I'm really happy to see the Homeworld 2 soundtrack released at last. Finally we can listen to this epic score without having to rip audio files from the original release game that are highly compressed and full of sound effects.. I love this soundtrack. Gives the clima of alien space and battles there very well. It's a one of the key elements of the game to makes it's success. You can hear it without game with same delight.
